Prime Minister Abiy Ahmed’s Phone Call with President Joseph R. Biden, Jr.

Prime Minister Abiy Ahmed held a phone call today with the United States President, Joseph R. Biden, Jr.

The two leaders discussed current issues in Ethiopia, bilateral relations as well as regional issues.

Prime Minister Abiy Ahmed shared with President Joseph Biden the status of Ethiopia’s rule of law operations in the Northern part of the country as well as the efforts being made by the Government to address issues in relation to humanitarian assistance, human rights and rebuilding efforts in recently liberated areas.

Both leaders affirmed the commitment to strengthen bilateral relations and to work collaboratively on matters of mutual concern.
